OBJECTIONS & ANSWERS TO CALLING OUT "YA RASOOLALLAH"

OBJECTION 1

The Holy Quran states, "Heed! Allah ﷻ, do not call out to anyone who can neither grant you benefit nor inflict harm." - Surah Ta'at: Verse 195

We can ascertain from this that to call out to anyone besides Allah ﷻ is prohibited and is the practice of idol-worship.

Answer: - The word "call" in this ayah and others like it doesn't mean to call out to someone for "favor, attention and other favors" of the Holy Quran. Therefore, the meaning of these ayahs is that no one except Allah ﷻ should be worshipped. Other verses corroborate this meaning. Allah ﷻ states, "And who calls another to be worshipped (associated with Allah ﷻ) (those) have meaning worshipers." - Surah al-Baqarah, Verse 177

We now understand that praying someone besides Allah ﷻ to be Allah ﷻ and calling out to him is polytheism (shirk) because this is worship of someone who isn't Allah ﷻ. If this meaning was not ascertained to these ayahs, then all of the astrakhs we have produced from the Quran, Hadith and rulings of the Ulama become calling to Allah ﷻ because we will have all prove to be polytheism. Then calling or addressing anyone, whether near or far, alive or deceased will all amount polytheism. We daily address and call out to our family and friends. Therefore, there will be no one in this world free from this. Also, when we respond to someone in prayer to Allah ﷻ, we are saying and quelling. So, why would calling out to or addressing someone be better as praying someone to Allah ﷻ? If this is the way can this be polytheism? These verses attribute to that person? How can this be polytheism?

OBJECTION 2

"Remember Allah ﷻ sitting, standing and while reclining." - It is known from this that to respect the name of
